Annex to the note verbale dated 21 February 2007 from the Permanent Mission of Cuba to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

Cuba's reply concerning its implementation of Security Council resolution 1737 (2006), which establishes an international sanctions regime against the Islamic Republic of Iran

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Cuba has the honour to report that the Republic of Cuba's relations with the Islamic Republic of Iran are in compliance with the provisions of Security Council resolution 1737 (2006).

Pursuant to article 98 of the Constitution of the Republic of Cuba, the Government of the Republic of Cuba is circulating a directive to all central institutions of the State in order to ensure strict application of the provisions of Security Council resolution 1737 (2006).

In addition, the Government of the Republic of Cuba has established, under the direction of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, a national coordination mechanism in which all relevant national institutions participate. This mechanism is responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of Security Council resolution 1737 (2006) and will remain in existence for as long as the resolution is in force.
